MONSTER POWER NOW SHIPPING 3 NEW PRODUCTS

*The HDP 2400 High Definition PowerCenter™, the Outlets To Go™ Power Strip, 3
Outlets, and the HTS 1000 MKIII PowerCenter™*

Brisbane, CA, April 23, 2007—Monster Power, an industry leader in AC power products, has just debuted 3 new products.

“Monster Power has a varied range of products,” says Noel Lee, The Head Monster. “We are now shipping 3 brand new products with very different purposes. The HDP 2400 High Definition PowerCenter™ is for protection and performance of HDTVs, The Outlets To Go™ Power Strip, 3 Outlets version is for convenience for travelers on the go and finally the HTS 1000 MKIII PowerCenter is for protection and performance of TVs and Home Theaters.”

HDP 2400

The new Monster High Definition PowerCenter HDP 2400, provides protection and increasing performance of HDTVs - The HDP 2400 incorporates Monster's new Monster Clean Power™ Circuitry Stage 2 v.2.1, called High Definition Digital filters, that are designed to minimize the noise that HDTVs generate. In addition, it also includes a sleek new look, T2™ protection that monitors the line voltage and will disconnect it in dangerously high or low voltage situations and then reconnect it when power returns to a safe level, a digital voltage display that is dimmable, a 6420 joule rating, 8 surge protected outlets, and phone, network, and coaxial connectors.

The Monster Power HDP 2400 retails for $399.95.

OTG 3

3 plug Outlets to Go is the latest version of Monster's highly successful Outlets to Go series of products. There are never enough outlets in hotel rooms for travelers to power their laptop and all of their portable electronics. Outlets to Go 3 is the ideal solution for these travelers, and turns one outlet into 3 outlets. Its unique design and innovative cord wrap feature make it ultra compact to easily fit in briefcases, purses, and suitcase.

Outlets To Go is small, light and compact and it features a Monsterous™ patent pending Road Warrior design. The illuminated FlatProfile™ Plug and FlatWrap™ super-flexible power cord makes for added convenience to tuck neatly into a briefcase, purse or other small spaces. The dual-side design and ultra-wide spaced outlets fit bulky AC chargers without losing outlets and minimizing space. The blue LED indicator in the plug shows the outlets are receiving power and the built-in, resettable circuit breaker enhances hotel room safety by preventing dangerous overloads.

Monster Outlets To Go 3-outlet models retails for $14.95.

HTS 1000 MKIII

The HTS 1000 MKIII with Clean Power Stage 2 is the latest version of Monster's best selling power product. Monster has combined state of the art protection with performance enhancing features in its HTS 1000 MKIII model. Monster Clean Power Stage 2 dramatically reduces electronic noise for Better Picture and Sound™. The HTS 1000 MKIII includes patent pending T2 automatic disconnect/reconnect protection circuitry, a 6125 joule rating for superior protection, Tri-Mode™ Power Protection circuitry with audible alarm, a digital display that shows incoming voltage, 8 outlets, and phone, network and coaxial connectors.

The HTS 1000 MKIII retails for $199.95.
